

DIPLOMA IN EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

This one-year part-time Diploma Programme in Emergency Management is open to persons who hold the Certificate in Emergency Management as well as practitioners in other fields who have knowledge and experience that is equated with the outcomes of the Certificate in Emergency Management.

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

- Students completing the Diploma in Emergency Management would have gained the competence for the following:
- Represent communities and agencies in discussions on disaster preparedness Develop and designed disaster mitigation strategies
- Advise agencies and communities on risk reduction plans
- Participate in multi-agency coordination and management of emergency operations during disasters.
- Advise stakeholders on disaster impact expectations to aid their decision-making
- Develop and design disaster plans to minimize the threats of terrorism and other man made, technological and natural disasters.

PROGRAMME OUTLINE

DIPLOMA

24 Credits

Required Courses Credits

Semester I

12 credits

COM 221	Incident Report Writing	3
EMM 225	Hazard Mitigation in Disaster Management	3
HRM 210	Organizational Behaviour & Development	3
EMM 150	Introduction to Terrorism	3

Semester II

12 credits

EMM 290	Exercise Design	3
LOG 120	Critical Thinking	3
EMM 255	Introduction to Technology in Crisis & Emergency Management	3
EMM 260	Community Emergency Response Team	3

Total Credits Required

24